Subscriptions: One year, $3; one month, 25 cts.; single copy, 1 cent.

Members of the Publishers' Press.—The latest telegraphic news from all parts of the world are received by the Daily Times up to the hour of going to press.

Frank E. Langley, Publisher.

Published Every Weekday Afternoon.

Entered as the postoffice at Barre as second class matter.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1903.

The average daily circulation of the Barre Daily Times for the week ending Saturday was copies, the largest paid circulation of any daily paper in this section.

2,900

"Times, of Course"

That's what all the newsboys say when asked which Barre paper sells the best. There is no doubt about it.

It is now said that worry is a sin. If so, there are a good many sinners.

The water question is fast taking precedence of the liquor question in this vicinity.

President Roosevelt has just been given by will, a sum of $30,000. He will now be called a "millionaire politician" by his enemies.

It appears that New Hampshire cannot stand the strain and may call a special session of the legislature simply to "get into the band wagon" on the matter of an exhibit at the St. Louis show.

B. Croto, who was indicted by the grand jury for the murder of Peter Vorren at East Montpelier several months ago, has been sent to the insane asylum to be "observed." A good start for Croto.

Quincy people may perhaps be justified for the bit of apprehension expressed in the following from the Quincy Ledger: "The organization of the Quincy granite Quarries Co. should be accomplished speedily and on a firm basis that our granite industry may not be crippled. The syndicate controls most of the best quarries in Quincy, and has not been in the past the help that was anticipated would result from consolidation of interests. Many things have happened in the past few years to give the granite industry a set back, and heroic steps will be necessary if it is to continue and do a successful business."

In view of the fact that there was so much disturbance in the interscholastic foot ball arena of Vermont this fall over the men who composed the teams, the following rules proposed by the high school principal's club of New Hampshire will be of direct interest. There are only three rules to govern the make-up of the school teams of that state, but they are comprehensive. They are, That every team or organization bearing the name of, or representing a high school or academy, be composed of pupils at that school or academy, and those exclusively; that every member of a school team be a bona fide member of the school, attending at least 15 prepared recitations a week; that every member engaging in athletic contests be doing work of a grade up to the promotion standard. Those are strict rules to be sure but they are just. And if the schools of New Hampshire adopt them, those petty annoyances which are so common in school athletic relations will be done away with. The school principals of Vermont might hunt a long time and still not find a set of rules better adapted for their schools. Who will start the movement?

A Foot Rule!

There is one foot rule that says twelve inches.

But there is another foot rule that says "equal distribution of strength is a Shoe essential."

That is the rule that gives the Curtis Shoe its individuality.

When measuring the quality of a Shoe the latter rule is the one to go by. Remember the rule.
